ASHOK VATIKA

Tucked within a serene grove of Ashok trees, this hidden gem exudes intimacy and charm. In spring, fiery orange blossoms ignite the landscape, casting a golden glow reminiscent of a rising sun. Year-round, the trees' graceful branches create a natural embrace, transforming the lawn into an enchanting haven for many ceremonies and events.

Size: 11,000 sq ft / 1,022 sq m

POOLSIDE LAWN

Framed by the forest and bathed in golden light, Aahana's Poolside Lawn is a charming setting. A free-form, organic-shaped pool glistens at the heart of it—its edge softened by a hand-carved rockery where water gently cascades down.

On one side, a lush lawn offers the perfect stage for vows or sacred rituals. Across the pool, another invites guests to take it all in—from the ceremony to the silence of the forest rising just behind.

Size: 8,000 sq ft / 743 sq m

ASHOK HALL

Under shimmering gold and black accents, this grand space pulses with energy. Whether it's a cocktail soirée or a DJ-fueled celebration that lasts until dawn, this is where the party reaches its crescendo. A perfect blend of sophistication and revelry, it sets the stage for nights you'll never want to end.

Size: 5,723 sq ft / 532 sq m

SINDOORI BAGH

Sindoori Bagh is a large, open lawn surrounded by tall trees and natural beauty. At its heart stands the iconic sindoor tree—a meaningful spot where many grooms have applied sindoor to their brides for the first time. With a wide, open sky above and the forest as a backdrop, the space works beautifully for weddings and celebrations of any size. Whether it's a quiet ceremony or a grand evening event, this is a very special setting.

Size: 18,000 sq ft / 1,672 sq m

NANDAVAN

Nandavan is one of our largest open lawns—wide, green, and surrounded by a beautiful variety of trees. True to its name, it feels like a garden made for the gods. With plenty of space and a natural, open setting, it's perfect for big families and large celebrations. Whether it's a wedding, reception, or gathering, Nandavan offers room to spread out, come together, and celebrate with ease.

Size: 60,000 sq ft / 5,574 sq m

ANANTARA BALLROOM

Introduced in February 2026, this ballroom spans over 10,500 sq ft, and is designed with a sense of grandeur. Warm beige and gold tones, soaring ceilings, and bespoke chandeliers. The ballroom flows seamlessly into Nandavan Lawn allowing events to move effortlessly between indoors and outdoors.

From intimate gatherings to large-format weddings and receptions, the setting offers both presence and possibility.

CELEBRATIONS THAT GIVE BACK

Where Luxury Meets Responsibility

“

MAGICAL PLACE, EXTRAORDINARY LOCATION,
EXEMPLARY PEOPLE

We came here for our daughter's wedding and could not be more satisfied. The rooms are gorgeous, well-equipped, and set in a lush green space that comes right to the leafy boundary of the Corbett reserve. Staying here feels radically different and better than staying in a traditional hotel. The food is excellent. The property is not only a resort, but an ongoing experiment in environmentally-conscious design, where they are constantly searching for innovative ways to lower their ecological impact.

The staff are exemplary, responding instantly and cheerfully to every request and problem. Ayu worked tirelessly and collaboratively to help us plan the wedding and source additional help when we needed it. Bhagat, our personal guide, was intelligent, resourceful, endlessly cheerful, available on Whatsapp at a moment's notice and completely fluent in English. Whether you are interested in ecologically-focussed luxury travel or planning an event like ours, I can't recommend Aahana strongly enough. We are already planning our next visit. Read it here.

OUR DREAM DESTINATION WEDDING FULL OF LOVE, GOOD FOOD AND WARM SMILING FACES

Getting married is the most personal decision one can make - and getting an opportunity to have your loved ones seamlessly enjoy the festivities, the food, the décor, the warm and effortless staff services as well as the calm to be in a beautifully eco-friendly ambience to create the most magical three days is more than one can ask for. That's what Aahana gave Angad and me, a gift for a lifetime. We had several family members come to us, telling us how they enjoyed the wedding and wanting to eventually organize events and weddings and special occasions at Aahana post that, and each one has had an amazing experience.

The best part of the Aahana team is their hospitality and ability to carefully understand your requirements and your tastes and also provide with a plethora of options for you to choose from to make it truly customized to your needs and preferences. I continue to recommend Aahana to everyone who wants to have just all-heart days with the ones they love in a beautifully curated home away home. Read it here.
